To maintain the continuum of the learning growth cycle, every step is equally important. However, there is one step that makes a substantial impact, that of "Gap identification," which is the penultimate step towards ensuring the continuation of the learning growth cycle.

It's already good

I am confident that I would be a valuable asset to the college community. I am a hard worker and I am always willing to help others. I am also a good listener and I am always open to new ideas. I believe that my positive attitude and my will make me a great addition to any college community.

Develop the communication between teachers and students

All ok

College is a already well developed. There is a no new suggestion option for the development of the college

Good canting

I am not willing changing in college

The teacher should make each student comfortable to come forward and speak. every student should talk to the teacher if there are qualities in every student will come and end the talent out and it will definitely be a good opportunity for the development of the college on both sides for the development of the student.

As educators, we have an incredible power: the power to help struggling students improve, and the power to help propel excelling students on to ever greater heights.

The teacher should make each student comfortable to come forward and speak every student should talk to the teacher if there are qualities in every student will come and end the talent out and it will definitely be a good opportunity for the development of the college on both sides for the development of the student.
